

Presentation of the Foundation

FHAS, Inc. thinks that common people have to act together to represent common interests and wants to spread important, viable relief for Haitians, with a special focus on children. FHAS wants to gently push any complacent citizens out of complacency by informing them of relevant social facts and encouraging them to take suggested actions.

FHAS, Inc. does not seek to push any particular subject or action on anyone but purely encourages to study and act on the issues everyone care about. Our purposes explain the basics of many important issues and contain relevant and credible information to edify everyone about what is happening in Haiti.

Future generations depend on the proper decisions and actions of the current generation. If you have or plan to have family you cannot afford to not act for their sake. While suffering certainly encompasses issues like hunger, violence, crime, disease, poverty, misery, and refugees, it is also significantly affected by legal, economic, environmental and other issues that FHAS seeks to point out.

The foundation is non-profit and its membership may be of any nationality, creed, origin or race, provided they have the same objective, respect, and desire to carry out the norms and purposes of the foundation.

Your donation to the foundation will be handled with care and effectiveness in order to carry out activities, and projects to help Haitians improve their quality of life for the well-being of the environment they are living in.

Volunteers are essential elements for FHAS ability to achieve its mission. Volunteers may show a vital resource of skills in governance, administrative, and service capacities. FHAS invites everyone who wants to serve as volunteer to join the board. While getting involved may be a challenge, the combined good faith efforts of the masses will in fact create major, relevant social improvements worldwide. There are millions of suffering people that can readily benefit from your participation in collective action.
